SKIN TROUBLE ITCHED AND BURNED

On Body. Could Not Rest. Broke Out in Pimples All Over. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

S. F. D. No. 1, Box 104, Bridgeport, Conn.—"I was suffering with a skin trouble which began after a spell of sickness six weeks ago. It was mostly on my body and I could not rest for the itching and burning. It began like a little rash, then it would break out in pimples all over me. I would sit and burn and itch all over and I would not sleep. At times I could hardly bear anything to rub against the parts that were affected. I do not know how many remedies, ointments, etc., I tried but none did me any good. Then I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they seemed to be the very thing that I needed. I only used them four weeks and they completely healed me. I have not been bothered with the trouble since." (Signed) Mrs. H. L. Patton, Jan. 31, 1914.

ENGLISHMAN GIVEN LIBERTY BY VILLA

George St. Clair Douglas, the British subject held by "Constitutionalist" authorities at Zacatecas, was released Monday. His detention had been the subject of representations to Carranza and Villa agents here by H. C. Myers, the British vice consul here. Theodore Hamm, American consul at Durango, had been requested by Douglas's department to investigate the case. Hamm left here Monday to return to his post and report on the Zacatecas case.

Douglas had been charged by the revolutionary officials with having assisted the federalists under Gen. Barron in the recent unsuccessful defense of the state capital. This charge has been withdrawn, according to a telegram received here Monday afternoon from Manuel de la Vega, "Constitutionalist" governor of Zacatecas state. The message read:

FEDERALS SEIZE AND LOAD SHIP

San Francisco, Calif., July 7.—A wireless message to Capt. Fred Johnson of this city, owner of the Mexican schooner Salvador, notified him that the Salvador had been seized by the federalists at Guaymas and that she was being loaded with merchandise, supposedly consigned to Salina Cruz, the Pacific terminus of the Tehuantepec railway.

JUDGE BLANTON IS CONFIDENT HE'LL BE CONGRESSMAN

Candidate Who Is Opposing W. R. Smith Arrives and Will Address Voters.

"You El Paso people don't believe I'll win. But mark my words, I'm your next congressman. That is the way Judge Thomas L. Blanton sums up his race for congress against congressman W. R. Smith. The judge arrived in El Paso Tuesday morning and will make an address tonight at Cleveland square at 8:30 o'clock.

Promises to Help El Paso. "I will do more for El Paso in a few years than Smith has in the last 12," he said. "That is no idle boast. I know how to do it. Irrigation. I am in favor of utilizing every gallon of flood water in Texas. That is the only way we can get rid of our arid sections. I favor this utilization just as far as the constitution permits and, where the constitution puts an obstacle, unnecessary restrictions. I favor amending the constitution.

Friend of Laboring Man. "And I want to help the laboring man," Judge Blanton extended a hand, the palm of which was gnarled and calloused. "I'm no prior advocate of the working man. I know his lot, because I have lived his lot. I will fight until I get a law that will allow decent compensation to the working man when he is injured or killed. Take a recent case. A man lost his hand and was awarded $45,000. That is ridiculous. But it is no more ridiculous than awards of $200 and $300 for a human life. There must be a fixed sum for all cases. Simply prove that a man was killed, lost a hand, leg or eye or any member, and that stipulated amount. Then those dependent on the workingman would get a just share, instead of a dozen fees of various kinds reducing it to almost nothing.

Confident of Victory. If confidence has anything to do with it Judge Blanton will certainly win. He is a man of medium height, energetic and strong. He talks straight to the point and never dodges a question. And his calloused hand has a powerful grip. Judge Blanton goes to Sierra Blanca, where he will speak July 9, and at Van Horn the same evening. Valverde and Marfa, July 10; Fort Davis and Alpine, July 11; Balmon, Saragosa and Toyah, July 12; Carlsbad and Lordsburg, July 13; Rankin, July 15; Fort Stockton, July 18.
